Program Offerings

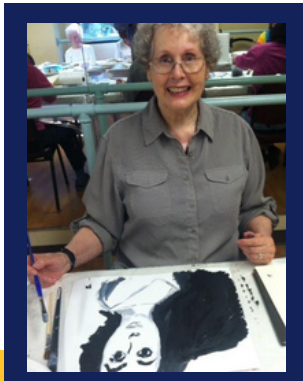

IN-PERSON ART PROGRAMS

SENIORS CREATING ART (SCA) offers in-person art programs to senior citizens. Interested participants can find information about available classes by visiting the Seniors Creating Art website.

Art programs range from one-off workshops to daily workshops. Class size is limited to a maximum of 15 participants to ensure each that participant receives individual instruction and engagement. Classes are taught in watercolor, acrylics, drawing, collage, printmaking and other mediums. All supplies are provided free of charge.

SCA art programs are offered at community centers, senior centers, libraries, retirement homes and other facilities. Interested hosting facilities should contact SCA for current rates.
